DOCKETED

MAR 24 2014

DOCKETED BY

Plaintiff submits its Response to Respondent's Request for Continuance ("Request").
Respondent's Request should be denied.

The Securities Division filed a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing on November 5, 2013. A pre-hearing conference was held on December 10, 2013, setting the hearing date for April 14, 2014. A mutual exchange of exhibits and witness list was scheduled for February 28, 2014. Respondents failed to provide exhibits and witness list as ordered. Now the Respondents are attempting to extend this matter for an additional six months to obtain an attorney.

Respondents have had ample time to find an attorney. The Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") at the December 10, 2013, pre-hearing conference inquired whether Respondents would be retaining counsel. Respondent Hageman responded that they would not be retaining counsel. The ALJ, with input from the Securities Division and Respondents, then set the hearing for April 14, 2014. The November 15, 2013, Procedural Order set the hearing date and also set a date to

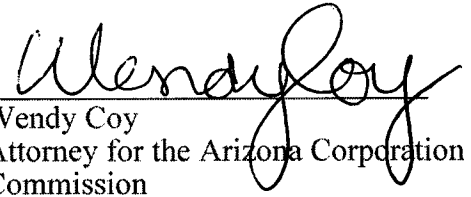

1 mutually exchange exhibits and witness list. Respondents failed to produce its exhibits and witness
2 list as ordered.

3 Respondent Hageman indicated in communication with the Securities Division, that after 4 "partial review" of the Securities Division's exhibits and witness list he has decided to retain
5 counsel. Almost 100% of the Securities Division's exhibits are from Respondents. There are no
6 exhibits that should be a surprise to the Respondents or that warrant a six month continuance.

7 This matter has been set for hearing since December 10, 2013. Now, less than 30 days from
8 hearing and after receiving the Securities Division's exhibits and witness list, Mr. Hageman
9 requests to delay this matter for six months to obtain an attorney. Respondents Request should be 10 denied.

11 Dated this 24th day of March, 2014.
